

The Friends of the Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge Complex invite you to a special outdoor presentation by J.D. Wright, the Complex's new Federal Wildlife Officer. Seating is limited - bring a blanket to sit on!

Challenges of a Federal Wildlife Officer

Free!

Sunday ~ July 12, 2026

Time: 10:30 – 11:30 am

Location: William L. Finley
NWR Headquarters
26208 Finley Refuge Road,
Corvallis, OR

Meet and welcome Federal Wildlife Officer, J.D. Wright.

Learn what inspired him to get into law enforcement and his journey from the Midwest to islands, volcanoes, redwoods, deserts and more before coming here. Questions are welcome!

About the presenter: Mr. J.D. Wright covers both the Willamette Valley NWR Complex and the Oregon Coast NWR Complex. His office is at the headquarters at William L. Finley, but he isn't there much as he has a lot of area to cover. Easy to talk with and a bright personality, he's always ready for a chat.

Due to the nature of J.D.'s law enforcement responsibilities, the presentation may be canceled on short notice. Check the Friends Facebook page for updates.

<https://www.facebook.com/FWVNWRC>

For more information about the Friends of the Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge Complex visit: <https://friendswvnwrc.org/>

