

The Friends of the Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge Complex invite you to one or more opportunities to experience nature Free! journaling through sound.

A Different Way to Listen to Nature

Have fun! No experience journaling, drawing or identifying bird songs required! No registration required.

Choose from three dates & places 9 am -11 am

Sat., May 23rd

Location:

Mark Gehlar Hall
Ankeny Hill Nature Center
130 Ankeny Hill Road SE
Jefferson, OR 97352

Sat., June 6th

Location:

Snag Boat Bend Unit: on Peoria Road approximately 10.6
miles south of Highway 34 and immediately south of the town of Peoria.

Sat., June 27th

Location:

Woodpecker Loop at
William L. Finley
National Wildlife Refuge
Corvallis, OR

What you need to bring:

- binoculars
- a small sketch book or journal
- pencil
- folding stool or chair
- smart phone with Merlin App (if have), camera optional

About the presenter:
Delores Porch serves as the Secretary for the Board of the Friends group.

She is hooked on birds!
Learn more about her on the Friends website.

For more information about the Friends of the Willamette Valley National Wildlife Refuge Complex visit: <https://friendswvnwrc.org/>

